January 7-8, 2023: The Epiphany of the Lord

*That I, Too
May Do Him
Homage*

MATTHEW 2:8

Think of Sacraments. Think of Divine Life.

Sacrament of Baptism.

The sacrament through which God, in Jesus Christ, makes us His sons and daughters. To prepare for reception, email Father Edison @ fr.edison.tayag@dor.org.

- Children, older than 7 y/o, and adults who needs to be baptized, receive Communion and/or be Confirmed, call Deacon John @ 924-7111.

Sacrament of the Eucharist.

The sacrament through which God, like a loving parent, feeds us, with food from heaven: His Word, and the Body and Blood of Jesus.

- Weekend Masses: Saturday at 4:30 PM, Sunday at 8:30 AM, and 10:30 AM. During the three-year Eucharistic Revival, let us deepen our love for Jesus in the Eucharist.
- Weekday Masses: Monday-Wednesday, Friday at 8:30 AM. Thursday at 8:30 AM: Communion Service.
- For First Holy Communion, call Donna DeJooode at 924-2800 for more info.
- Family members may bring Holy Communion to other family members who are sick and homebound. See Father Edison.

Sacrament of Confirmation.

The sacrament through which God by the gift of the Holy Spirit strengthens us to give faithful witness to our Catholic Faith. To prepare for reception, call Donna DeJooode @ 924-2800.

- Children, older than 7 y/o, and adults who needs to be baptized, receive Communion and/or be Confirmed, call Deacon John @ 924-7111.

Sacrament of Reconciliation.

The sacrament through which God's mercy and love, justice and truth heals the wound of human sin. Generally offered an hour before each Mass - daily and weekend. Please give the priest fifteen minutes before Mass to prepare for Mass.

Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick.

The sacrament through which Jesus continues to heal the sick among us. Anointing is offered at each Mass on the first weekend of the month, or call Fr. Edison @ 924-7111.

Sacrament of Marriage.

The sacrament through which God calls a man and woman to become visible signs of His and His People's love. For inquiries about marriage preparation, call Fr. Edison or Deacon John @ 924-7111.

Sacrament of Holy Orders.

The sacrament through which the mission Jesus entrusted to the apostles is continued in the Church. To learn more about vocations to the ordained ministry, please call Fr. Edison or Deacon John @ 924-7111.

By the sacraments, God sustains us through our journey.

Eucharistic Revival Pilgrim's Passport

Spiritual Exercise 13: Be aware of fellow pilgrims

In the summer of 2013, a friend and I did a segment of the Camino de Santiago in northern Spain. From Leon, we walked the holy trail to Santiago. The Camino taught me valuable lessons about pilgrimage and about being a pilgrim - images that we employ to help us on our journey to God, with Jesus as our guide - images that can guide us as we together walk the three-year Eucharistic Revival. I hope that you find these lessons helpful...

- Acknowledge and appreciate fellow pilgrims. God put us here together for a reason. Let us see one another and be seen. Get to know fellow parishioners - intentionally. Be kind. Offer help. Be loving.
- Cherish the present moment. Fellow pilgrims come and go - some stay longer, others only briefly. Regardless of the time, focus on creating beautiful memories together. Make each other laugh or smile.
- Travel light. The less we think about things, the more we engage with fellow pilgrims. Always share the necessary load to lighten everyone's burden. Encourage. Inspire.
- The end determines the way. Or as Jesus said, "On earth as it is in heaven." Let yourself and others spend time with God in prayer. In prayer, we get to know God and grow our relationship with Him. When our relationship with God is in good order, everything else follows.

The passport stamper is on the book cart by the Parish Office door.

How Our Parish Family Prays

Pilgrim's Prayer of Saint James

*Jesus, be for us our companion on the journey,
Our guide at the crossroads,
Our breath in our weariness,
Our protection in danger,
Our shade in the heat,
Our light in the darkness,
Our consolation in our discouragements,
And our home at the end of the day.
So that at the end of journey, with You, we may be greeted by the loving embrace of God the Father. Amen.*

Let us be connected through prayer daily. Set your phone at 3:00 PM and when it goes off, pray a Hail Mary for the parish community. Please include these intentions:

- For us to journey through the Ordinary Time with intent to grow our parish,
- For the Eucharistic Revival—that Catholics may rediscover the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist,
- For two men in our parish who are discerning the vocations to the ordained priesthood and the permanent diaconate,
- For those prison - for freedom and good life,
- For the dead: the souls in purgatory, and for the grieving.

Our Real Presence

What is the difference between watching Mass on internet or TV and participating at Mass in person? It is the difference between merely looking at food and actually eating the food.

You may bring Holy Communion to family members who are sick and homebound. To learn more, please see Father Edison.

Weekly Parish Communication

Don't miss out on receiving our weekly parish updates and reminders.

New Beginnings: Ministry For Divorced, Separated, and Widowed Persons

You are invited to a five-week weekly faith-sharing beginning January 10, Tuesday, 7 PM in the Preschool Wing.

Concerning divorce, people may have questions as it relates to the Catholic faith. Please know that you may meet with Father Edison to discuss your questions or seek spiritual direction. This may also be a good opportunity to learn about and explore annulment. To set up a meeting, please send him an email through fr.edison.tayag@dor.org.

Christ, Coffee, and Conversations

We welcome the help of new volunteers to serve the Coffee Hour. To help, please contact Mary Beth Then at mbthen1@gmail.com.

The Coffee Hour is offered on the first and third Sundays of the months. On the first Sunday, it is offered after the 8:30 AM and 10:30 AM Masses - for socialization.

On the third Sunday of the month, the Coffee Hour is offered between the 8:30 AM and 10:30 AM Masses. This Coffee Hour serves as a platform to continue parish conversations began by the Synod Listening Sessions. These conversations are facilitated by members of the Pastoral Council.

Parish Potluck Christmas Party

Let us together as a parish celebrate the birth of Jesus as the Christmas season comes to its close. Bring your favorite dish to pass. See this Saturday, January 7th, 6 PM, in the Parish Center.

Christmas Lessons and Carols

Let us enjoy our favorite Christmas carols as well as recall the great story of salvation through selected Scripture readings. See you in church on Sunday, January 8th, at 3:30 pm.

We're Glad You're Here With Us!

If you have been joining us in the celebration of the Holy Mass on the weekends (among other wonderful things) but have not formally registered, we invite you to join the Saint Patrick's family. Take a registration form a Welcome Table, complete it, and hand it to Father Edison or Cathy.

You bless us with your presence.

Our combined Christmas Party was so much fun with so many gathered together! Don't miss out this Sunday!

together we serve

Service Sundays

Did you know that Service Sundays are for all parishioners to participate? While geared toward teens, all generations are invited to join in serving our parish family and community. Also, for older parishioners who need help with some house chores, let us know for what we might be able to help and include you in the schedule.

Please contact Donna at donna.dejoode@dor.org, if you have any questions. Next Service Sunday is January 29 at 1:00 PM.

Community Dinner

We serve the Community Dinner on the third Saturday of every month, at the First Presbyterian Church, from 4 until 7 PM. We need your help. For the details on how to help and a copy of the recipe, please refer to the sign-up sheet on the Welcome Table by the Alcove.

Also, we accept donations of toiletries. Drop them off in the designated bin at the Alcove entrance.

Victor-Farmington Food Cupboard

We appreciate your donations of canned goods and non-perishable food products for our local food cupboard. Drop off donations in the designated bin by the Alcove.
