Eucharistic Revival Pilgrim's Passport

Spiritual Exercise 9 Pray for the Dead.

With All Saints and All Souls Days approaching this week, let us remember both our favorite saints and our loved ones who have passed.

As we remember the saints, let us ask them to pray for us, the faithful on earth and those in purgatory. And as we remember the dead, let us offer them our prayers - especially if they needed the time of purification before they finally see God face to face. Let the good that we do in Christ do them good.

Here are a few things to consider...

- Offer them the Prayer for Eternal Rest. "Eternal rest grant unto (name), O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon (him/her). May the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen."
- Visit your loved ones at the cemetery. Sprinkle holy water on their graves.
- Write down their names on our Book of Remembrance. You may place a framed photo of them on the Table of Remembrance in church.
- Offer a Mass for your beloved departed. Contact Mrs. Cathy Fafone at the Parish Office thru 924-7111. The passport stamper is on the book cart by the Parish Office door.

Favorite Family Prayers

Many of us have favorite prayers that we use in our daily prayer and as we move through the liturgical season, holy days, feast days and favorite devotions. We are inviting you to share with us your favorite prayers.

How? Simply print or write down your favorite prayer. You may include your name with the prayer. Then, drop your prayer in the collection basket. We hope to print these in the bulletin to share with fellow parishioners.

Pray always and humbly pray.

Buen camino!

- Father Edison

Christ, Coffee, and Conversations

The Coffee Hour is offered on the first and third Sundays of the months. On the first Sunday, it is offered after the 8:30 AM and 10:30 AM Masses - for socialization.

On the third Sunday of the month, the Coffee Hour is offered once - between the 8:30 AM and 10:30 AM Masses. Why? This Coffee Hour is utilized as a platform to continue parish conversations began by the Synod Listening Sessions. These conversations are facilitated by members of the Pastoral Council members. Whether you participated in the listening sessions or not, these discussions are ways for us to invite more parishioners to offer their insights. If and when there is a need for a second session, we hope to offer it. Here are the upcoming topics -

- November 6: The Giving of the 2021-22 Parish Report after the 10:30 AM Mass
- November 20: Discernment and Decision-making in the Church
- December 18: Faith in the Public Square

If you can help serve the Coffee Hour, please contact Mary Beth Then at 924-7111.

Exploring Ministry for the Divorced, Separated, and Widowed Persons

From the Synod listening sessions and Coffee Hour conversations, we heard your concerns related to divorced, separated, and widowed persons.

From these conversations, it is good to invite divorced, separated, and widowed persons to hear from them themselves, gather input, and identify our next steps.

If you yourself are divorced, separated, or widowed, please join us on November 14, Monday, 7 PM in the Parish Center.

Plenary Indulgence for the Deceased

The Church provides a great opportunity to help the departed by performing acts of devotion, repentance and charity. These acts provide remission from temporal punishment and are called indulgences. During the Octave of All Saints, (November 1-8) the Church gives us a special opportunity to gain indulgences for the departed.

Grant 29.1.1 A plenary indulgence, applicable only to the souls in purgatory, is granted on any and each day from November 1st to Nov 8th, who devoutly visit a cemetery and there pray, if only mentally, for the departed. The indulgence is plenary each day from the 1st to the 8th of November; on other days of the year it is partial.

Requiem Eternam Prayer

Eternal rest grant them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. Amen.

Grant 29.1.2 A plenary indulgence is granted the faithful who, on All Souls' Day (or according to the judgment of the bishop, on the Sunday preceding or following it, or on the solemnity of All Saints), devoutly visits a church or an oratory and recites an Our Father and the Creed.

Requirements for obtaining a plenary indulgence:

- Do the work while in a state of grace.
- Have the interior disposition of complete detachment from sin, even venial sin.
- Have sacramentally confessed their sins.
- Receive the Holy Eucharist.
- And to pray for the intentions of the pope.

According to the Code of Canon Law (canon 992) and the Catechism of the Catholic Church (paragraph 1471): “An indulgence is a remission before God of the temporal punishment due to sins whose guilt has already been forgiven, which the faithful Christian who is duly disposed gains under certain prescribed conditions through the action of the Church which, as the minister of redemption, dispenses and applies with authority the treasury of the satisfactions of Christ and the saints.”

An indulgence is not a permission to commit sin, nor a pardon of future sin. It is not the forgiveness of the guilt of sin; it supposes that the sin has already been forgiven. It means a more complete payment of the debt which the sinner owes to God. It is not a purchase of a pardon which secures the buyer's salvation or releases the soul of another from purgatory.

What Our Numbers at Mass Should Mean

Our attentiveness to our Sunday Mass attendance comes from our desire to enliven our love for Jesus in the Eucharist, and for some, to rediscover their faith in the Real Presence.

It is a good habit to invite family members and friends to the in-person celebration of the Mass. Pray for the success of the Eucharistic Revival. Pray for fellow-parishioners.

Let us continue the trend of increase both in our presence and participation at Holy Mass.

Let there be light...

Our Desire to See God

At that time, Jesus came to Jericho and intended to pass through the town. Now a man there named Zacchaeus, who was a chief tax collector and also a wealthy man, was seeking to see who Jesus was; but he could not see him because of the crowd, for he was short in stature. So he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore tree in order to see Jesus, who was about to pass that way.

- Luke 19:1-4

Moving to the 19th chapter, we skipped about half of the previous chapter of Luke. It is good use of our time to cover the missed section and to reflect on the importance of child-like trust and spiritual poverty in prayer.

Now, Jesus was nearing Jerusalem, and from Jericho, he would begin His ascent to the Holy City. At Jericho, however, a powerful encounter happened between Him and Zacchaeus. Zacchaeus was a tax collector (at that time, regarded as a public sinner). That he was chief tax collector and wealthy should alert readers about the degree of his moral character. Yet Zacchaeus was interested in Jesus - interested enough to climb a sycamore tree when the crowd 'prevented' him from seeing Jesus pass by.

When he reached the place, Jesus looked up and said, "Zacchaeus, come down quickly, for today I must stay at your house." And he came down quickly and received him with joy.

- Luke 19:5-6

Unlike the crowd, Jesus saw Zacchaeus. More, Jesus understood the profound desire in Zacchaeus to see Him, and so He invited Himself to dine at his house. And Zacchaeus welcomed Jesus with joy.

When they all saw this, they began to grumble, saying, "He has gone to stay at the house of a sinner."

- Luke 19:7

The crowd did not share in the joy of Zacchaeus but grumbled instead. That Jesus saw in Zacchaeus a sinner in need of salvation, the crowd merely saw Zacchaeus as a sinner.

But Zacchaeus stood there and said to the Lord, "Behold, half of my possessions, Lord, I shall give to the poor, and if I have extorted anything from anyone I shall repay it four times over."

- Luke 19:8

His encounter with Jesus rendered Zacchaeus grateful and morally grounded. In receiving Jesus, Zacchaeus let go half of his possession and blessed the poor with it. In receiving Jesus, Zacchaeus became open to examine his conscience and set things straight before God, as needed.

And Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house because this man too is a descendant of Abraham. For the Son of Man has come to seek and to save what was lost."

- Luke 19:9-10

After hearing the conversion of Zacchaeus, Jesus declared that salvation has come - Zacchaeus is saved!

Here are points of reflection on the Gospel reading...

- Do I recognize my own desire to "see" Jesus? Do I see this desire for God as common among men and women?
- What helps me recognize this desire for God? Or, what distracts me from acknowledging this desire for God?
- If Jesus were to speak with me, reading the desire of my heart, what would Jesus say to me?
- That Jesus wants to spend some time with me, what would I do with my time with Him?
- In what way do I believe that Jesus would change and transform me? Were Jesus to say to me, "Today salvation has come to this house," what would this mean to me?

The three-year Eucharistic Revival is unfolding in our midst for a reason. Only 1/3 of Catholics in the US now believe in Jesus and in words that He is truly present in the bread and wine consecrated at Mass. Two-thirds of us would rather believe in our own words that in God's word, to follow our own way that God's way.

At Jericho, may we find ourselves in Zacchaeus, rediscover our desire to see Jesus and climb the tree to see Jesus as Jesus once more. Buen camino!
